DEUTSCHE BANK CHAMPIONSHIP - If your player finishes 2nd to Luke Donald in this week's Deutsche Bank Championships, Fred will refund all losing singles on the outright market

Deutsche Bank Championship
Eight million dollars are on offer at the Deutsche Bank Championship at the TPC Boston in Norton, Massachusetts where the Americans have dominated in the eight starts of this event with two exceptions when Fiji's Vijay Singh upset the form book in 2004 and 2008. Charley Hoffman defends his title but world number one England's Luke Donald challenges this time.

La Vuelta a Espana

The Vuelta a Espana is the third and final Grand Tour of the year where the race leader wears the red jersey. This the 65th renewal covers 3,310 kilometres over 21 stages and is good preparation for the World Championships towards the end of September. Italian Vincenzo Nibali is the overall title holder with Manxman Mark Cavendish the holder of the points equivalent and both look fancied for the same again.

Celebrity Big Brother
Big Brother rears its ugly head once again with some, err, celebrities, apparently - and a bouncing boyband kind of thing called Jedward. So if you can take it longer than the housemates themselves and if you can recognise any of them then get stuck in to Channel 5 at ten o'clock nightly and let battle commence! Ugh.
