English FA Cup

A record 763 clubs started the road to Wembley 2012 for the 131st FA Cup, the oldest football competition in the world. Stats followers will note that Chelsea's Ashley Cole is the most decorated FA Cup winner with 6 winners medals to his name with Manchester United having lifted the Cup a record 11 times. Manchester City beat Stoke to claim the spoils last time and this year's winner will qualify for next season's Europa League group stage.

Newcastle United v Blackburn Rovers

Blackburn will have been happy not to have not drawn Aston Villa this time having had their Cup dreams ended by them for the past two years. This time it's Newcastle they challenge for a place in the fourth round. Blackburn's league fortunes have been mixed to say the least with only three wins all season, yet one of them against the mighty Manchester United. But anything can happen in the Cup, and it probably will!

Manchester City v Manchester United

The FA Cup Third Round Proper sees the Premiership clubs enter the competition and Manchester City host neighbours United at the Etihad Stadium. The two have met once this season ending in a classic 6-1 victory to City at Old Trafford. City beat Stoke 1-0 in May having braved two replays against lower league contestants in the third and fourth rounds. United exited to City last season in a 1-0 affair at Wembley.

African Cup of Nations

Sixteen countries line up for the 28th African Cup Of Nations co-hosted this time by Gabon and Equatorial Guinea. Egypt scored an historic treble in 2010 by defeating Ghana in the final and a record seven titles but do not feature this time. Ivory Coast or 'Les Elephants' top the betting featuring Premier League stars Didier Drogba, Salomon Kalou, Gervinho and the Toure brothers Yaya and Kolo.

Lakeside World Championships

LET'S PLAY DARTS! is the call from the Lakeside Country Club in Frimley Green for the BDO version of the World Championship. Historians of the game will know that this is the one of two World crowns up for grabs since the WDC breakaway in 1992 which resulted in the PDC as we know it today. Martin The Wolfman Adams defends his BDO title looking for hat-trick and his fourth Lakeside World Championship.
