The Open

The 140th Open Championship comes to Royal St Georges in Sandwich in Kent with British golf in great shape ahead of the greatest of all golf competitions. England's Luke Donald tops the charts as world number one closely followed by Lee Westwood whilst US Open winner Rory McIlroy jumps up into third place. South Africa's Louis Oosthuizen defends his crown and will fight it out for a share of the £5 million purse.

British Grand Prix

Formula 1 comes to Silverstone for the British Grand Prix, the oldest continually staged Grand Prix alongside the Italian equivalent. Whilst the Drivers Championship horse appears to have bolted all eyes are on Lewis Hamilton as press speculation builds on his next team move. Paddock whispers suggest a move to Red Bull but he'll need points on the board to keep his stock high.

Barclays Scottish Open

The European tour gathers at Castle Stuart golf links for the Scottish Open seen as the rehearsal for the Open Championship at Sandwich next week. You can throw a Union Jack across the top of golf's world rankings so British tails are up and in great shape. US Open champion Rory McIlroy sits this one out but the big guns of Lee Westwood and Luke Donald head the cast for this absolutely picturesue event.

English Premier League 2011-2012

The dominance of the Premier League this millennium by Manchester United, Chelsea and Arsenal looks set to be challenged this time by big-spending Manchester City. The red half of Manchester however remains the team to beat however as they seek a record 20th top flight title. Chelsea's new management set up will no doubt be closely scrutinised to see if they too can topple Alex Ferguson's stars.

Paddy Power

GAA FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP - If you back a team to win and they fail to reach the quarter finals Paddy Power will refund your stake

County Championship Div One

The LV County Championship 2011 comes after a winter of ups as well as downs for English cricket. Eighteen teams will contest two divisions in the format of two innings per side over four days with 16 points for a win, eight for a tie and three for a draw with additional batting and bowling bonuses. Nottinghamshire won the title last season in a final day thriller and look strong again with Somerset, Durham and Yorkshire likely to challenge them for top honours.

Bonus Bagging – Week 3

Hi Bloggers,

Week 3 and not much action for me. As stated in the introduction Mike sends you bets whenever you think you are ready for some and send a request to him. I requested just a couple of bets this week. Simple sports free bets, nothing extraordinary here.

1) +£13.50

PaddyPower free bet. Very simple stuff, and a little more than £13.50 profit risk-free.

2) +£20.50

Same as above, this time from BetClic. Nothing really to comment on, just following the recommendations from the vendor's email, which resulted in a bit more than +£20.50 again risk-free.

3) +£12

This was a casino promo running at 888.com, which I mentioned in Week 1 post. Decided to go back to this one and did it twice. Although, it could be done every day I didn't want to overuse it and get banned out of the promotion. Not that much work to do, but it does take some time and effort, especially compared to the above offers. Wasn't very lucky there as I earned only about £12, but it's a long-term offer, and I think that overall profit will be worth the effort.

Overall +£46 this week, a nice and easy profit.

Starting bank – £250

Running bank – £440.5 (plus £190.5)
