Having scored well in the Royal Lodge at Royal Ascot last term, the Dewhurst last October and the Greenham Stakes at Newbury in good style this month, the stage looks set for a return to the Rowley Mile winners enclosure for the Master of Warren Place.

The dealings are over and the fight is finally on at Hamburg's 57,000 seat Imtech Arena on the 2nd July. David Haye throws his WBA heavyweight belt into the ring in his bid to unify it with Wladimir Klitschko's IBF and WBO equivalents. The buildup has already begun and Haye says that he'd fight Klitschko anywhere, so long as the location comes with a ring and a ref that can count to 10. Bring it on!

Period of Reviews

Some debate has been going on as regards the length of time that services should be reviewed on Lay The Odds and Betting System Truths. A decision has been made, by our admin, Gordon!

1. If the product is "busy" i.e. there are normally selections every day, we go for the initial 56 day review, as currently, and then make a decision as to whether to continue or not. For these products we adopt a 56 "betting days" policy, so any day with no selections, for whatever reason, is not counted.

2. If the product is not busy, a "slow burner" as I call them, we will adopt a different policy. If it is obvious that there are only going to be one or two betting days per week, then we go straight to a full 84 day review. In this case it is just 12 weeks. However I think we will leave the option open for the reviewer to choose to go for 84 "betting Days" should they choose.

The idea is that the longer the review, and the more bets we can include, the better that is for everyone, readers, vendors, authors alike.
