ATP Wimbledon 2011

The ATP top four seems rock solid at the moment with few others getting a look in but Wimbledon can throw up wildcard champions as easily as top seeded ones. It's not just the prestige of winning the Championships that every player strives for but it might also have something to do with the £14.6 million in prize money.

Canadian Grand Prix

It seems that the Red Bulls are again unstoppable as the F1 season reaches the Circuit Gilles Villeneuve in Montreal, Canada. Sebastian Vettel has won five out of the six races this year but the McLarens of Lewis Hamilton and Jenson Button have been getting ever closer. Button maintains the title is still up for grabs but another win here for the German might put it out of reach for the others.

US Open Championship

The Congressional Country Club in Bethesda, Maryland is the venue for the 111th US Open Championship. European golf has never been in such good shape going into this with the top three in the rankings coming from this side of the Pond. Luke Donald and Lee Westwood will lead the European challenge whilst Phil Mickelson heads the cast for the Americans following Tiger Woods' withdrawal.

David Haye v Wladimir Klitschko

The dealings are over and the fight is finally on at Hamburg's 57,000 seat Intech Arena on the 2nd July. David Haye throws his WBA heavyweight belt into the ring in his bid to unify it with Wladimir Klitschko's IBF and WBO equivalents. The buildup has already begun and Haye says that he'd fight Klitschko anywhere, so long as the location comes with a ring and a ref that can count to 10. Bring it on!

Moto GP Riders World Champion

Valentino Rossi's dominance of the MotoGP series was finally broken last season by Spain's Jorge Lorenzo but only after the Italian was kept out through injury. This season Rossi rides for Ducati in his bid for a record 8th MotoGP world championship. Yamaha, who have dominated this event for the past three seasons, have lost their superstar to Ducati and with Nicky Hayden as team mate the Italian outfit look set for a strong season.

Rugby World Cup Winner 2011

New Zealand is the venue for the 2011 Rugby World Cup where the hosts are hot favourites for the Webb Ellis trophy. Despite their recent dominance the All Blacks have failed to turn up in this tournament since winning the inaugural event in 1987. Meanwhile Australia have featured in three finals winning twice, holders South Africa were previous champions in 1995 and England have just the one victory to their name as a result of the famous Jonny Wilkinson drop kick in 2003.
