David Haye v Wladimir Klitschko

The dealings are over and the fight is finally on at Hamburg's 57,000 seat Intech Arena on the 2nd July. David Haye throws his WBA heavyweight belt into the ring in his bid to unify it with Wladimir Klitschko's IBF and WBO equivalents. The buildup has already begun and Haye says that he'd fight Klitschko anywhere, so long as the location comes with a ring and a ref that can count to 10. Bring it on!

Results for Thursday and Friday from Karl here and this review will be finished very soon now.
