PREMIER LEAGUE - If your winning 1st Goalscorer bet scores TWO goals (or more) in the match Victor Chandler will pay you out at DOUBLE THE ODDS!

Sceptics would argue that Newcastle's progress into the top four of the Premier League is a false dawn for the club as their route so far has been relatively easy with the exception of only two tests to date resulting in a 0-0 draw against Arsenal in August and a 3-1 defeat to Manchester City last week. This time it's Manchester United to deal with at Old Trafford which is a different challenge again.

Liverpool v Manchester City

It's the start of a busy few days for Liverpool as they prepare to face Manchester City at home on Sunday swiftly followed by a trip to Chelsea in the Carling Cup on Tuesday. If there are tired legs to come Liverpool won't feel it now having come away with a late winner to sink Tuesday's rivals in the League last weekend. Any points from this one however would be a bonus given City's recent league form.

Brazilian Grand Prix

The final round of the 2011 F1 season comes to Interlagos in Brazil with the championships already decided but after Lewis Hamilton's somewhat fortuitous victory in Abu Dhabi the McLarens will no doubt keep pushing in good style and lay down the marker to Red Bull for next season. All eyes will be on Reubens Barrichello who insists that this is not his last home GP despite rumours in the press.

I'm A Celebrity...
I'm A Celebrity is back where B and C-listers are tested by jungle discomfort and fed insects and animal parts for the shot at King Or Queen of the Jungle 2011. Mark Wright from TOWIE, Anthony Cotton from Corrie and Dougie Poynter out of McFly make the early running followed by Freddie Starr who allegedly has a strong stomach were rodents are concerned. Ant & Dec of course take us through it. Ugh.
